

WELCOME BLACK

From vampish to Victorian, design is finding a new versatility in black. Kartell took 'black is back' to extremes with an all-black stand this year.

- 1 'Comeback' chair by Patricia Urquiola for Kartell.
- 2 '22' armchair by Jaime Hayon for Ceccotti Collezioni.
- 3 'Masters' chair by Philippe Starck and Eugeni Quitllet for Kartell.
- 4 'Rock' chair by Successful Living from Diesel with Moroso.
- 5 & 6 The 'Pulp' collection by Studio Jo Meesters

TAKING SHAPE

New materials allow for shifting shapes and fluid forms. Italian company Moroso unveiled Tokujin Yoshioka's 'Memory' chair (top) made from recycled aluminium fabric that adjusts its shape to each sitter, as well as the 'Draped Sofa' (above) from the Moment collection by Front.

NEW NOSTALGIA

Tailored designs evoke the romance of the past with a sleek new edge. We've fallen for Nika Zupanc's 'Modesty' sofa (above) and her '5 o'clock' chair (right).
